2/ ~~As~~ The U.D clerks have no supervision work during the period of training. ~~Therefore there is~~ no justification for

2. It is proposed to allow the trainees from the District Treasury, South Kanara District, to draw pay as officiating upper division clerks and also a Special pay of Rs 5/pm during the period of their training, provided they are not reverted to lower division posts during that period.

From the Collector's reference on pp 3-4 cf, it is seen that but for their selection for training, the two U.D clerks in question, would have continued to act as U.D. clerks. In the circumstances Finance may agree to allow them to draw during training, pay as upper Division clerks, subject to the following remark:

Special pay The Special pay referred to is presumably Supervisory Special pay which is a Class II Special pay, sanctioned for specific additions to work. During the period of training, the upper division clerks in question, have no Supervision work. There is therefore no justification to allow them the Special pay also during training. Finance may therefore suggest the provision for the Special pay may be cut out.

Revenue may be requested to revise the draft order on p1 above suitably in the light of the above remark
